

Media release

1 March 2018

Celebrity Pro-Am Supports Veterans' Families

The first Legacy PGA Celebrity Pro-Am at Huntingdale Golf course will be held on 18 May 2018. Legacy cares for the families of veterans who have given their life or health for their country, and proceeds raised on the day will help these families in need.

Also, lending their support for the event as the first celebrity ambassadors are former SEN host Mark Allen and former St Kilda Captain and Richmond coach Danny Frawley. They are both keen to encourage other celebrities and athletes to be involved to support this worthy cause.

“Legacy’s work means a child can get an education and a fair go, a widow is not disadvantaged and alone, and a family is not torn apart by the effects of Post-Traumatic Stress,” Melbourne Legacy President Graeme Plumridge said. “Nationally, Legacy cares for 65,000 families including children, people with a disability and widows. There is also a growing demand for support for young families of veterans who have served post-1991 who are suffering from Post-Traumatic Stress.

“Legacy relies on donations to provide services to veterans’ families facing hardship and we are grateful for the support of PGA Australia and all the sponsors, in particular, Huntingdale Golf Club which has supported Melbourne Legacy for 85 years with a charity golf day.”

The Legacy PGA Celebrity Pro-Am has some excellent corporate support with BMW South Yarra, TaylorMade, Schweppes, Sweet Spot Club Hire and Easy Golf Worldwide all on board. For more information on how to be involved as a sponsor please contact Richard Tesel at info@easygolfworldwide.com.au or abigail.gilroymith@legacymelbourne.com.au

At the event, players can play in individual Stableford and teams of fourball bestball. To book go online at www.trybooking.com/TYQV

For further information: