

Legacy Australia appoints new Chief Executive Officer

Legacy Australia Incorporated is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr Scott Warr as CEO.

Legacy is a unique and iconic charity that for 95 years has been dedicated to the welfare of families following the incapacitation or death of a spouse or parent, during or after their defence force serve.

Mr Warr has over 30 years broad experience in the military, private and public sector in Australia and overseas, and brings a wealth of expertise with strengths in areas such as leadership, strategic planning, and legislative compliance.

Legacy Australia Chairman, Rick Cranna, OAM, said: "It is clear that Scott shares in our core values. As an ex-service and family man himself, he understands the promise that underpins our organisation, in caring for our widow(er)s and families".

Graduating from the Royal Military College Duntroon to the Royal Australian Armoured Corp, Scott completed a very successful 22 years of service, including a variety of regimental, staff and overseas deployments and postings.

Mr Warr has a Bachelor of Arts from the University of New South Wales and went on to obtain a Masters of Management from the same University. He holds other qualifications in emergency, business continuity and project management.

Mr Warr will take up the full-time position in Sydney this week.
