PRESS BRIEFING

London Legacy announces twin success for Rutherglen

4th July, 2012, London, United Kingdom

London Legacy is pleased to announce two superb successes for Rutherglen linked supporters of Legacy.

The recent ANZAC GALLIPOLI LEGACY BALL at Australia House in London saw two Rutherglen (Victoria) linked supporters of London Legacy contribute to what was a very successful evening. And since this event, London Legacy is very pleased to announce outstanding success for both supporters, bringing Rutherglen to the fore of sporting and wine success.

During the Ball, attendees were enthralled to view an exclusive DVD of Andrew Hoy OAM riding his horse Rutherglen in preparation for Olympic qualifying. Legatee Andrew Hoy was at the time riding at the famous Kentucky 3 day event in the USA attempting to qualify for what would be his 7th Olympic games representing Australia in Equestrian events.

Andrew has a long track record with his 6 Olympic Games delivering 3 gold and one silver medal. Andrew had dedicated his ride in the upcoming Olympics to Legacy Australia if he qualified. The news this week is that Legacy will be represented at the London Olympics as Andrew has indeed qualified and will be heading to London for his 7th Olympic games.

At the same time Ball attendees were watching Andrew ride Rutherglen, they didn't realise that they were sipping a soon to be famous drink, courtesy of Stanton & Killeen from Rutherglen, Victoria. Wendy Killeen of Stanton & Killeen had sent London Legacy her Classic Rutherglen Muscat to sip as we watched Andrew put his now famous horse through his paces on the big screen.

The rest is history as recently, Stanton & Killeen were honoured when they were awarded two international trophies at the International Wine Challenge for their Classic Rutherglen Muscat. Wendy Killeen said "To take out the trophy for Best Rutherglen Wine and Best International Fortified Muscat is a tribute to our forebears who set up our cellars and instilled in our custodians of the generation, a sense of future, of quality and excellence.

LONDON LEGACY

Both Wendy and Andrew are hopeful of attending our ANZAC Ball next year, the Friday before ANZAC DAY, at Australia House London, when we will again sample the world's leading Classic Muscat with the distinctive tastes of molasses, mocha, coffee bean, silky, luscious, complex, well balanced etc., the words dancing out of the mouths of the judges at the prestigious International Wine Challenge in London last month. This eclectic group of professional wine industry personnel were charged with the task of judging more than 12,000 international wines.

Please put this prestigious event in your 2013 diary now and support the work of London Legacy in caring for the families of incapacitated and deceased Veterans living in 38 countries around the world.
